

Agnes T. Peterson

January 3, 1923 - December 25, 2016

Agnes T. (Georger) Peterson, age 93 of Royersford and formerly King of Prussia, died on Sunday, December 25th, 2015. She was born in Philadelphia on January 3, 1923 daughter of the late William and Agnes (Kirby) Georger. She was the beloved wife of the late Edward T. Peterson.

Agnes was raised in Philadelphia and graduated from Hallahan Catholic Girls High School. She was employed as a legal secretary and later worked with her husband in the office of the Upper Merion Tax Collector. She was a founding parishioner of Mother of Divine Providence Church in King of Prussia. Her life revolved around the church and the school, where she volunteered her time and talents in countless capacities; which was instrumental in really launching the parish from its infancy to the proud flourishing Catholic community it is now. She loved life and had many hobbies and special interests, but everything was second to her family. Family was everything to her and she everything to them.

Agnes is survived by: a son, John of Schwenksville; 2 daughters, Susan (David) Siegler of Plymouth Meeting and Anne (Jeffrey) Keatley of Royersford; a sister, Claire Boyle of Philadelphia; 10 grandchildren; 2 great-grandchildren; and 1 nephew. Beside her husband Edward, she was predeceased by her son, James.

Relatives and friends may pay respects on Friday morning, December 30th, from 9-9:50am at Mother of Divine Providence Church, Allendale Rd., King of Prussia. A funeral mass will commence in the church at 10am. Interment, Calvary Cemetery in West Conshohocken.
