

Anna Marie Berry

January 6, 1924 - March 3, 2017

Anna Marie (Fox) Berry, “Nan”, age 93 of Conshohocken, died on Friday, March 3, 2017. She was born on January 6, 1924 daughter of the late Joseph and Barbara (Hausmann) Fox. She was the beloved wife of the late Samuel Berry.

Anna Marie (Fox) Berry, known to most as Nan, was born and raised in southwest Philadelphia. She attended St. Clement Parish school and graduated from West Philadelphia Catholic High School for Girls. During World War II she served the country working for the Army Service Forces Philadelphia Ordnance District. She later received certification as a Medical Laboratory Technician from Graduate Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. Nan was then employed by Fairmount Farms Hospital, later Charter Fairmount Institute, where she acted as laboratory supervisor until her retirement at age 80. It was there that she met her husband, Sam Berry. They married in 1957 and settled in Conshohocken in the early 1960’s. Nan and Sam were instrumental in the establishment and preservation of Cedar Grove Park. Her many interests included appreciation of nature, travel, gardening, entertaining family and friends, and selflessly helping and giving to others. A devout Catholic, she was a member of St. Matthew Parish. She will be deeply missed, but Nan’s kindness lives on through all who knew her.

Anna Marie is survived by: a nephew, Joseph P. Fox of West Grove, PA; 2

nieces, Barbara J. Rauschuber (Michael) of Canyon Lake, TX and Jeanmarie Fox of Glenolden, PA. She was predeceased by: a brother, Joseph P. Fox; a sister, Barbara T. Walmsley and a niece, Patricia A. Walmsley.

Relatives and friends may pay respects on Friday morning, March 10th, from 9-10:30am at the William A. Moore Funeral Home, 708 Fayette St., Conshohocken. A funeral mass will commence at 11am in St. Matthew RC Church, 3rd Ave. & Fayette St., Conshohocken, PA 19428. Interment, Calvary Cemetery in West Conshohocken. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in her memory may be made to St. Matthew RC Church at the aforementioned address.
