“ I knew Brandy when she was young and hopeful and a great friend to my son, Seth.. She had to overcome a lot in life and she did it in a beautiful way. I don't know you, Chris. but I want you to realize that, from everything I've heard,, you and your family made sure that her hopes and dreams came true. You gave her a home, and a family, and the love of a wonderful partner. You helped her complete her education. She was proud and happy because of you and I pray that this knowledge carries you through your grief. Marie Roberts

“ Brandy, words cant describe how much your friendship meant to me. You were such a kind, loving, caring, hard working women. It was such a pleasure being able to witness you accomplish as much as you did. It hurts to know your journey was cut so short, because I know first hand just how much more you had in store for your future. I will always cherish our talks and memories we created. Our laughs, our cries, our inside jokes, everything. You were the BEST work wife/work bestie a girl could have ever asked for and you will NEVER be replaced. I love you so much Bee Ham. My prayers go out Chris and her family. I never had the pleasure of meeting Chris, but I know you guys were soulmates and madly in love. Rest in Paradise Brandy!

“ You were just a baby in these pictures, but you grew into this amazing woman who overcame so much in her life and showed everyone your innermost strength. You had so much more to offer life and everyone you encountered. I guess God had different plans for you and now you are with him. No matter what Brandy Rose, just know I love you and never stopped. You are my niece...how could I ever not love such a beautiful soul. My prayers to Chris and the family.
