

Carol A. Mortimer

January 6, 1939 - August 26, 2024

Carol A. (Willing) Mortimer, 85, of Philadelphia, PA, passed away peacefully on August 26, 2024. She lived a life full of love, joy, and passion, leaving behind cherished memories for her family and friends.

Born in Philadelphia, Carol was the daughter of the late Milford and Pauline (Gelner) Willing and the sister of the late James Willing. She graduated from Bartram High School in Southwest Philadelphia and embarked on a distinguished 45-year career in banking, where she was known for her dedication and professionalism.

Carol had a rich array of interests and hobbies that brought her great joy. She was an avid softball player, a green-thumbed gardener, and enjoyed camping and traveling. For several decades, she relished weekends at Warwick Woods Campground, creating treasured moments with loved ones. After retiring, Carol continued to embrace her love for travel with annual trips to Walt Disney World (Vistana Resort) sharing these special times with family and friends.

Carol is survived by her loving daughter, Carolyn Heck (David Raimondo); her granddaughter, Brittany Heck; and her great-grandson, EJ Nieves. She is predeceased by her life-long companion, Sandra Lichty, whose memory remains a treasured part of Carol's story.

Relatives and friends are invited to her Viewing, Saturday, August 31, 2024; 9:30-10:30 am, William A. Moore Funeral Home, 708 Fayette Street, Conshohocken, PA 19428 and to her Funeral Service 10:30 am in the Funeral Home. Internment, SS. Peter & Paul Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to be made in Carol's memory to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Carol's spirit, kindness, and zest for life will be deeply missed but fondly remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

“ April 1st was always a special day for Mom (Carol/G) and Brittany. Well not so special for Britt lol....
School open during Sprink break when it wasn't....
Winning trip to Disney World from Burger King (fake).
Brittany finally decided not to communicate in anyway with G on that one day each year.
Love and Miss you Mom
