

Christine Jean Brower

November 15, 1956 - January 21, 2020

Christine Jean (Deuber) Brower, age 63 of Conshohocken, passed away on Tuesday, January 21, 2020. She was born on November 15, 1956 daughter of the late Walter E. Sr. and Madeline (Kurkowski) Deuber. She was the beloved wife of Christian T. Brower for over 21 years.

Beside her husband, Chris; she is survived by: a brother, Thomas. She was predeceased by: 2 brothers, Walter E. and George Deuber; and a sister, Madeline "Sissy" Lester.

Christine was a graduate of Norristown High School. She was employed by Montgomery County Courthouse for over 18 years. She enjoyed trips to the mountains and the Jersey shore; Western movies and shows; and sports, especially the Phillies, Eagles and Sixers. She was a devout born again believer in Christ and lived her life selflessly; willing to do anything for anybody expecting nothing in return. The love, passion and joy in her life was centered upon her husband, Chris.

Relatives and friends may pay respects on Saturday morning, January 25, 2020 from 9-10:50am at the William A. Moore Funeral Home, 708 Fayette St., Conshohocken. A service will be conducted in the funeral home at 11am officiated by Reverend Pastor Bradley Lacey. Internment is private. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to: St. Jude Children's Research Hospital at
