

Dolores Rita Giera

November 20, 1933 - January 21, 2024

Dolores Rita (Sanginiti) Giera, age 90 of Plymouth Meeting, passed away on Sunday, January 21, 2024. She was born in Philadelphia on November 20, 1933 daughter of the late Anthony and Theresa (Procopio) Sanginiti. She was the beloved wife of the late Edward Joseph Giera.

Dolores was raised in South Philadelphia in the parish of St Nicholas of Tolentine, and graduated from South Philadelphia High School for Girls in 1951. Before devoting herself to raising a family, she was employed by Gimbel Brothers where she met her future husband. She enjoyed bowling, traveling, and being active in various senior groups at Epiphany of Our Lord Church. She donated much of her time and talent for many years volunteering at Mercy Suburban Hospital in the office and teaching aerobics classes. Her family and friends were the focus of her life.

She is survived by a son, Edward (Kimberly); a daughter, Barbara Rodden (Kevin); two grandchildren, Ryan and Kyle (Dana); and three great-grandchildren, Tyler, Jayson, and Trey. She was predeceased by two sisters, Catherine Alizzi and Rose Verderame, and three brothers, Bruno, Dominic, and Leon.

Relatives and friends are invited to pay respects on Saturday, January 27th from 9-10:15AM in Epiphany of Our Lord Church, 3050 Walton Rd,

Plymouth Meeting, PA 19462. A funeral mass will commence in the church at 10:30AM. Interment, St. Matthew Cemetery in Conshohocken.

In lieu of flowers; memorial donations may be made to: Susan G. Komen @ www.komen.org/how-to-help/donate/ or 1-877-GO-KOMEN.

“ I remember driving up to Manhattan with Mrs Giera to help move Ed into his new apartment for his first job after graduating from Penn. It was a Friday in June, When we said goodbye to Ed and hit the road in their family station wagon to leave, we realized that we weren't the only ones trying to leave the island. I think many of them were headed to the beach. What an adventure!
