“ I have such wonderful memories of my other mother for so many years of my life. Ill never forget the first time you introduced me to eggplant parmigiano, wasnt a big fan at 16, but now it has become one of my favorites. I am blessed to have known you and for always being welcome in your home like I belonged there. You'll be missed here by everyone who had the priviledge to know you. May you be at peace with the Lord now until we all meet again. Much love to my Doherty family. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.
