“ Rest in peace, Dotsie. We will miss your companionship and good humor. The grandkids loved your little presents and stories from the past. They even created a rap at one point to capture and celebrate that spirit. To quote, "What? You think I'm not from Conshy; wait till you meet my Cioci Dotsie." You summed up old Conshy for us and for them. You will be missed and fondly remembered.

“ Dear Dotsie, I miss you, but I will remember that you always had a joke, quote or a story to tell whenever we got together. We shared many good times -- eating out, shopping, or celebrating the major holidays with my sister's family and friends. You had a very kind and generous heart and became friends with just about everyone you met. And, you nurtured those friendships -- near and far -- thanks to the unlimited calls available on your cell phone. You were a wonderful person and friend. May you find love and peace in the reunion with your parents. Rest in Peace. Love -- Irene

“ Dotsie, Many wonderful memories of our time spent together - lunches with friends, concerts and plays at Plymouth-Whitemarsh, and all the holiday dinners we shared. Our grandchildren cried when I told them of your passing. They all know you as a kind and generous person who always had a funny joke to tell. We will all miss you. I know you have found peace and love in heaven. All my love, Josephine O'Brien
