“ Eileen was an incomparable Catholic Christian woman. She lived the spiritual and corporal works of mercy in her daily life, showing us by example how to feed the hungry, visit the sick, comfort the lonely, care for the elderly, bury the dead, and pray always.

Eileen was humble as she went about her faith-driven life. For instance, I had known her for quite a while through our prayer group, "The Bible Bunch," before realizing she was a Meals on Wheels driver/delivery volunteer in Montgomery County for many years.

She then drafted me to join her and it was my privilege to volunteer with her every tuesday for four years. She showed me how to deliver so much more than the meals to the home-bound elderly on our route in East Norriton. She delivered friendship, wit, wisdom, and a caring attitude of dignity and respect with every meal. She truly saw the face of Christ in each of her clients.

Such a person is irreplaceable in one's life so I am so sad that my friend of many years is suddenly gone. I do, however, take great comfort in knowing that our Lord greeted Eileen at heaven's gate, saying, "well done, good and faithful servant."
