

Elizabeth A. Czop

May 25, 1930 - November 10, 2018

Elizabeth A. (Borzelleca) Czop, age 88 of Jeffersonville, passed away on November 10, 2018. She was born in Plymouth Township to the late Anthony and Anna (Tedino) Borzelleca on May 25, 1930.

Mrs. Czop, a resident of Jeffersonville, graduated from St. Matthew's HS in 1948, and Drexel Institute of Technology where she obtained a BS degree in Home Economics in 1953. She later obtained her Master's degree equivalency as well. She was employed by Upper Merion School district and then later Norristown Area School District for 26 years where she taught Home Economics. She was a member of the National Education Association.

Elizabeth lived life to the fullest. Her greatest joy was being a wife, mother and grandmother. Throughout the years she focused on her children and grandchildren, often making costumes and hosting parties. After retiring she and her husband split their time between PA and FL where they were involved in many activities including bocce, shuffleboard, swimming and the bridge club. The family traveled extensively all over the world and cruising was something she often enjoyed with them in her later years.

Elizabeth is survived by her children, Michael Czop and husband Edward of Fort Lauderdale, FL; Carol Czop and husband David of Seattle, WA; John Czop and wife Marissa of Eagleville, PA; sisters Carmela DeSanto of Bridgeport and Eugenia Riley of Eagleville; many nieces and nephews; and her beloved grandchildren Juliana, Talia, Christopher, Ethan and Abigail. She was preceded in death by her husband of 43 years, Edward S. Czop and siblings Stanley Borzelleca and Sara (Borzelleca) McAvoy.

Relatives and friends may pay their respects on Wednesday morning, November 14th, from 9:45 to 10:20am at Visitation BVM church, 196 N. Trooper Rd., Eagleville, PA 19403. Mass will commence at 10:30am. Internment, St. Patrick Cemetery in Norristown. Donations in her memory may be made to Visitation BVM parish or Holy Cross parish, 500 Iris Lane, Vero Beach, FL 32963.
