

Elizabeth Moore Lincul

June 18, 1932 - June 14, 2026

Elizabeth (Moore) Lincul, age 93 of Plymouth Meeting and formerly Conshohocken; passed away peacefully, accompanied by family, on Sunday, June 14, 2026. She was born in Conshohocken on June 18, 1932 daughter of the late Louis A. and Annie (English) Moore. She was the beloved wife of the late Rudolph A. Lincul for over 51 years.

Lize, as she liked to be called, was born and raised on West 3rd Avenue in Conshohocken along with her 3 older sisters and 3 older brothers whom she loved very much. She graduated from St. Matthew High School in 1950. When the last of her 4 children went to school, she was employed at DeMedio Realtor as an insurance agent. Lize loved getting together with her friends to go out to lunch and play cards. She would teach her grandchildren her card games and very much enjoyed spending time with them all. While at home she would listen to classical music and always had Frank Sinatra on, especially Fridays with Frank and Sundays with Sinatra on WWDB.

Elizabeth is survived by: 2 sons, Rudolph A. Jr. (Susan Beatty) and David G. (Annette); a daughter, Suzanne Lamlin (William); daughter-in-law Linda Lincul, 8 grandchildren, Stacey, Ryan, David, Joey, Gina, Krista, Alaina and Anthony; 18 great-grandchildren; and many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. She was predeceased by: her son, Edward; her grandson, Matthew; 3 brothers, Michael, Louis and James; and 3 sisters, Mary Feldi, Anne Darby and Theresa Forsythe.

Relatives and friends are invited to pay respects on Tuesday, June 23rd from 10-10:50AM at St. Paul RC Church, 2007 New Hope St, Norristown, PA. A funeral mass will immediately follow at 11AM. Internment, St. Matthew Cemetery (Conshohocken).

In lieu of flowers; memorial donations may be made to: ALS United Mid-Atlantic; 1015 Virginia Dr. Ste 110; Fort Washington, PA 19034.

“ Enjoyed my years with Lize at DeMedio's. She taught me so much about insurance that I didn't know. We were sad to see her retire but so glad she had so many healthy years. God Bless 🙏🙏🙏
