“ Aunt Ella, I'm thinking of you and I know you are together with Uncle Joe and all the Brogan Family in Heaven. I've been thinking of you and wondering if you were getting my cards. I hadn't heard from you in awhile now and I didn't know how to reach your side of the family. Thank you for being such a wonderful and sweet Aunt to me. Now that you are in Heaven, please give my Mom and Dad a great big hug for me and please tell Uncle Joe and all the Brogan Family that I love them all. Please tell Aunt Bernie how much I miss all our fun phone conversations and all the laughter we shared. I don't know if you ever knew this but you were the first person when I was little to give me a glass of Ginger Ale! I never had it before that. I know that is funny but I always remembered that. My thoughts and prayers are with you. I'm sad to have missed your funeral but I didn't know about it until now. I don't think any of the Brogans know. I will try to bring flowers for you to the cemetery. I have a strong feeling you and Uncle Joe are at the same cemetery. Thank you, Aunt Ella for being such a wonderful Aunt to me! Love, Margie Brogan Walker

As you journey up above
Please know that from across the world
I'm remembering you with love*

*When your door you didn't answer
I guessed you were not well
Maureen sent updates on you
I was anxious, she could tell.*

*I remember once you shared with me
That Mom watched sports with Joe
While they cheered in the upper room
You cooked them treats below.*

*Tommy endeared himself to you
In the few times that you met
How I wished that he'd return
That's what you hoped, I bet.*

*You cooked up lots of tasty stuff
Then packed it up with care
Each time Christmas rolled around
With your family, you would share.*

*Your nephews and your nieces knew
Of your kind and generous heart
And they in turn were often there
For you they did their part.*

*You were a tough resilient gal
Survived a bad car wreck
Did all your physio faithfully
Your friends came by to check.*

You're now with Dolly and Bernadette

*With Mom and Joseph too
Sharing about your trying times
That you managed to get through.*

*You were devoted to our Lord
Always at Adoration,
Outside the doors of MDP
I cherished our conversation.*

*I'm so sad that I won't be
At your funeral Mass
I pray your soul will rest in peace
And cherish memories past.*
