Thank you for choosing our family. Your steadfast devotion and unwavering love as a husband, father, son, brother, and especially my relationship "brother-in-law, was admirable and amazing. Your journey on earth is complete but the real journey of eternal life is just beginning. You are with Barb dancing again. Don't let her get you in trouble in heaven.

We will never forget you. We will always love you. And because we have faith, we know we will see you again.

Until then...love you a bushel and a peck!

*Love,
Deb or as you called me "Aunt Deb"*

“ Dear Gar,

I loved you like a brother and will miss your quiet presence in my life. You modeled a spirit of humility, devotion, generosity, courage and resilience that are marks of a virtuous man. For the past few years, it was clear that you were coming into your own - stepping out a bit more, allowing people to experience both your wit and your grit. I am so happy that you were able to trust me to share that side of you.

Your getting sick, seemingly so fast, was surreal, but it served as a bitter reminder that “no one knows the day or hour” and that life is short. In hindsight, I wish I had kept up with seeing you regularly for our lunches and fireside chats, but over the past 5 months, time just seemed to have slipped away. Let’s hope that it was a lesson learned.

I was truly honored to have a place by your bedside during your Final Surrender. While the suffering you endured was intense, the peace that eventually settled around you was an undeniable blessing. To see God’s almighty hand working to the good in such troubled waters was miraculous. Walking by faith, the power of prayer and anointing brought healing to your soul and to those surrounding you.

“Well done, good and faithful servant. Now, enter into the joy of your Master.”

I will pray for you and I ask that you pray for me. To “stay vertical” in this crazy world is becoming more of a challenge and, between you and me, it sometimes stinks! ☐

*Love always,
Kadah*

“ Dad,

Words cannot begin to express the sorrow I feel in my heart and how much I am going to miss you. This world will not be the same without you. I find comfort and peace in my faith knowing that mom welcomed you home with open arms with our Lord and Savior. I am really going to miss your daily weather reports, our lunch dates, and the way you would roll your eyes at me with all of my trendy nail designs I would get. But mostly, I will miss the twinkle in your eyes when you talked about the many things that made you so proud of Matt & I.

This is not goodbye. It's, until we meet again.

I promise to keep living a faith-filled life & not take anyone or anything for granted, honor you and mom always, and continue to pray for you both.

You have set such a great example of what unconditional love, humility and devotion should look like.

I will keep looking for the signs from above that you are watching over us, so keep sending them!

I'm really going to miss you dad.

Thank you especially for these last few months. The blessings were too many to count and I will cherish each and every one in my heart forever.

I love you dad.

Always and forever,

Your most favorite daughter,

Kate 🕊️💜🕊️
