

George E. Wood

October 3, 1942 - February 18, 2026

George E. Wood, age 83 of the Cedar Heights section of Whitemarsh Township; passed away peacefully on Wednesday, February 18, 2026. He was born in Norristown on October 3, 1942 son of the late George K. and Grace (Brown) Wood. He was the beloved husband of the late Jane Wetherby Wood.

George Wood was born and raised in the Cedar Heights area of Whitemarsh Township, where he later raised his own family and built a life rooted in community and service. A 1960 graduate of Plymouth Whitemarsh High School, George was a dedicated lifetime member of the Lincoln Volunteer Fire Company, proudly serving as Fire Chief for 15 years. He shared a deep love of boating and fishing with his beloved wife, Jane, passions that followed them throughout their years together. George also enjoyed hunting and had a special affection for Springer Spaniels, which he and Jane loved breeding and raising. In later years, George retired to Ocean Pines, Maryland, where he continued to spend his days on the water. Though he left Pennsylvania, he remained a loyal Eagles and Phillies fan. Above all, George was a proud grandfather who cherished every opportunity to spend time with his grandchildren, supporting their activities, celebrating their accomplishments, and sharing in the joy they brought to his life.

George is survived by: 2 sons, George S. (Lisa) and Douglas A. Wood; a daughter, Dawn M. Nugent (Jeffrey); a sister, Sue Estrel; 4 grandchildren (Tyler, Taylor Jayne, Mallory, and Mitchell; a great-granddaughter, Alessia; many nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends. He was predeceased by his brother, Harry Wood.

As per George's wishes; services and internment were held privately.

Memorial donations in his memory may be made to: Assateague Coastal Trust; www.actforbays.org.
