“ Dear Greg, I remember when you offered to give me away on my wedding day. What you did for me was greatly appreciated. You were always more of a brother to me than a cousin. You were a wonderful person to all who new you and deeply loved your family. I am praying that you and Melvin are in paradise now with the Lord and are filled with a joy that no one here on earth could ever imagine. You are truly loved and deeply missed. Your Cousin,

“ We will miss you Greg. Our family has so many wonderful memories of you; we shall treasure them always. I am so sure you you are in heaven now sitting next to our Lord and your beloved family who have gone before you. No more pain and sorrow, only radiant joy being with God!

Please give our son a special hug from us and enjoy the scrabble game. Love you.
