Irene Mary Barnes, 86, passed away on Saturday, April 22, 2017, at her home in Conshohocken. Daughter of the late William J. and Maryann (Rydel) Bonkoski. Irene was born on August 19, 1930 in Conshohocken, Pennsylvania, where she lived most of her life.

She was predeceased by her beloved brother Walter "Vodge" Bonkoski.

Irene was the wife of the late Edgar V. Barnes. She is survived by 2 daughters, Karen Ottey and her son-in-law, Brian, of Plymouth Meeting; Joanna Koziol, and son-in-law Stan, of Oaks; her grandchildren, Michael and Melissa Koziol (& Devine) and Joshua (& Christina) Ottey; her great-grandchildren Sierra and Miles.

She held many different jobs when she was younger; waitress, switchboard operator at Bell Telephone, secretary at Continental Diamond and Fiber, Wanamakers Department store and Peoples National Bank in Norristown. She also attended Norristown Business School.

Her favorite job of all was being a mother, which gave her so much joy and later in life having grandchildren and then recently becoming a great-grandmother.

Irene loved animals, her dogs “Bootsie” & “Blue” and many cats over the years. Later in life she loved feeding the birds and squirrels that came to her back yard. She enjoyed working in her garden, planting flowers, especially roses.

She loved watching old movies, especially John Wayne and Elvis Presley. She could remember the names of all the actors and actresses. Her favorite movie was “Harry & Tonto”, which she could watch over and over again. She also loved listening to Frank Sinatra music.

In recent years she attended the Senior Center in Norristown, where she loved to talk to the people she met there.
