

James Edward Moore

November 29, 1966 - August 7, 2023

James Edward Moore, age 56 of Colleeville and formerly of East Norriton, passed away suddenly on Monday August 7th, 2023. He was born on November 29th, 1966, son of the late James A and Mary Anne (Smith) Moore. He was the beloved husband of Mary Anne (Homskie) Moore for over 32 years.

Jim was raised in Northeast Philadelphia up until age 12 when the family moved to East Norriton. He was a 1984 graduate of Archbishop Kenrick High School where he was selected to play in the All-Star Game. He went on to Thaddeus Stevens College of Technology and then on to Spring Garden College where he graduated. Jim was employed by Sharp Corporation in Conshohocken, PA as a Senior Maintenance Equipment Technician. Jim enjoyed spending time with his family, weightlifting, reading science fiction books, target shooting, rock and roll music (Ozzy Osbourne and Metallica), and in recent years he was enjoying newer country music. Jim like his father had a love for the bag pipes. Aside from music, Jim enjoyed walks with his dog Clint, bike rides, going to the movies, and making sure he and his family had a vacation every year. One of his favorite places was Wildwood, New Jersey. Jim always made sure he was there for his wife and sons and was certainly proud of all his sons' achievements. He was an avid Eagles and 76ers fan, and proud supporter win or lose. Above all, Jim was a family man, and standout husband and father.

Beside his wife, Mary Anne; Jim is survived by 2 sons, James E. Moore Jr. and Jake D. Moore; his brother, Stephen (Kathleen); many aunt's, uncle's, sister in law's, brother in law's, nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

Relatives and friends are invited to pay respects on Monday morning, August 14th from 10-11:15 AM at St. Eleanor RC Church, 647 Locust St, Collegeville, PA. Mass will commence in the church at 11:30 AM. Internment, Limerick Garden of Memories, Royersford, PA.

“ I just now in December found out about the passing of Jimmy. He was my friend growing up in Northeast Philly. I'm in total shock and I pray for his family. Even after he moved out of Philly I would stay the night at his house. I'm deeply saddened by his passing. Rest in peace Jim.

“ Our family is so shocked to hear the news about Jim...so horrible it was unbelievable.. Sad will never be seeing Him an Maryanne walking by the mailbox with his dog Clint anymore. We usually yell hi or wave...to them both.

Jim was a super great neighbor. My heart goes out to his hole family. I still can not believe we will never see him again walking Clint 😞 or just see him in general to say 🙌 hey n yell hi. Praying for his wife ..an his two sons...please try to take care ❤️ an his hole family an friends ... Deepest sympathy to all of you. Extremely sorry 😭 May God be with you and always sn forever 💜

“ I'm so heart broken I'll never get to meet you. I've heard so many wonderful things about you and your once beautiful black hair. I've enjoyed getting closer to you over Facebook the last year and discussing books and Lord of the rings. I'll make sure to read The Silmarillion. ❤️ RIP Uncle Jim.
