“ Dear Denny, and all of Uncle Jim’s beloved grandchildren and great-grandchildren, Jim and I offer our deepest condolences. Uncle Jim was a gift to our family. He always made the Jablonski Girls happy to see him with a huge smile and a big hug. He was a true buddy of my Dad’s and all his friends in the Dirty Dozen Hunting Club. Dushore will have a different vibe without him. Uncle Jim adored Aunt Florence and I’m sure they are busy playing pinochle with family and friends. I know we will all miss him, but my Jim and I feel privileged to have known him. 💕💕 Jane Anne and Jim Flanagan
