“ Chet, Joe and Theresa, we are very sorry for your loss. Growing up, your mom provided us with many happy memories. We always had a place to visit and she kept us safe. I especially loved her sense of humor. There were many years of family visits and holidays that will always be a special part of me. Please know her spirit is safe and in good hands with the Lord. Hopefully, the memories she provided help you through this difficult time. Please accept our prayers at this time. Love, Leslie and John.

“ Chet, Joe, and Theresa

We are sending our deepest condolences and prayers during this difficult time. When I remember Cioci Janice, I think of the backyard pool parties and her beloved Trixie. I can still hear her calling her name. Know that she is home with Uncle Chet and at peace in the arms of the Lord.

Love, Tom and Judy

“ Chet, Joe and Theresa, we are so sorry for your loss. Although we haven't seen Cioci Janice in many years, I thought of her often and have many happy memories with her, Uncle Chet and you: camping, holidays and Sunday evenings at Babci's and Dziadzi's house. I hope the many happy memories your family has made will ease a little of your grief. Our prayers are with you.

*Love,
Maryann & Bill*
