“ Cousin John was an enjoyable bundle of fun, laughs and accepting love. I always looked forward to visiting with him when our family would visit PA. From the earliest memories of pal-ng around Conshohocken, sliding down hills in cardboard boxes, to collecting bottles for an "unauthorized" candy store visit, exploring the A-field, to a more recent memory as adults of a fantastic pheasant hunt in PA., John was always a delight to be around. He was easy to be with, always made sure I was included and we never seemed to stop laughing.

On behalf of the Bonn cousins, we send our heartfelt sympathies to Cathy, John and Tim, and to our cousins George III and Michael, and their families. In lieu of flowers we will donate to Johnny's designated charity in his memory, which will long live with us!

Our prayers and sympathies,
