“ I sat and tried to think of one memory that would stand out and there are just so many wonderful years of friendship to choose just one. With that being said I’m going to say that I thank God because last week my daughter and I ran into John at Wawa and I haven’t seen him in a few months prior. I am so grateful that we were such good friends since grade school and that we ran into him and had the chance to give him a hug and tell him how much he still meant to me! Rest Easy my dear friend thank you for always being there when I needed you and always having my back no matter what ❤️
