“ Dear Trish and Family,
We enjoyed being in Joe's presence each year at the annual Derby Party. He was a gentle, quiet spirit with a great sense of humor. We loved seeing him each year and have many fond memories of Joe.

Dear Mrs Lynch, Tricia, Joseph, Elizabeth, Jimmy, Ann,
My deepest condolences. Countless hours of babysitting. One night it was freezing out, icy and very slippery. Mr.Lynch insisted on walking me home. He took me by the arm and escorted me home. He was the first boy/man who ever walked me home and I've never forgotten it.
Rest in peace my friend.

Love,
Nan Poliwoda
