

Julia Anna Volz

January 10, 1957 - January 9, 2026

Julia “Julie” Anna Volz, born January 10, 1957, passed away peacefully on January 9, 2026, surrounded by members of her family.

Julie grew up in West Conshohocken and later lived in Roxborough and Plymouth Meeting before fulfilling her dream of moving to the Jersey Shore. She made her home in Ocean View, NJ—her beloved “shore house in the woods”—where she lived happily with her dog, Rosie, and Aunt Marie Rozecki.

A lifelong learner and dedicated caregiver, Julie graduated from Upper Merion High School, Roxborough Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, and later Philadelphia University. Becoming a registered nurse was a natural calling for her; she spent her life caring for patients, friends, and family with compassion and unwavering commitment. Julie worked at Roxborough Memorial Hospital for 20 years before continuing her medical career at Temple University Hospital and later retiring from Quality Insights. In retirement, she devoted her time volunteering with Saint Maximilian Helpers Nursing Ministry. She was also a proud parishioner of the Church of the Resurrection / Saint Maximilian Kolbe Parish in Marmora, NJ.

Julie loved cruising, cheering for the Philadelphia Eagles (which may have had an impact on her health 😊), doing puzzles, and most of all, spending time with her family and her dog Rosie. Her humor and generosity touched everyone who knew her.

She is survived by her brother Gene; sister Betsy Stanton (Joe); brother John (Lisa); and her nieces and nephews: Gene Volz Jr., Tom Stanton (Sarah), Brian Volz (Becca), Susan Stanton (Mike Grady), Amanda Koniewicz (Marc Spruill), Chris Volz (Leeza), Rich Stanton, Eric Volz (Ashley), Justin O'Brien (Paige), Sean O'Brien, and Chris O'Brien. She is also survived by her great-nieces and great-nephews Mia, Robbie, Aiden, Cheyenne, Liam, and Vincent.

Julie was preceded in death by her mother, Florence (Rozecki); her father, Gene; and her sister-in-law, Lorraine.

Relatives and friends are invited to pay respects on Saturday, January 17th from 9:30-10:45AM at the William A. Moore Funeral Home, 708 Fayette St., Conshohocken. A Catholic service will commence in the funeral home at 11:00AM. Internment will be private.
