“ My dear, beautiful sister. Where do I begin? You have always been the person I turn to for advice, to share a happy moment, to share some of the big and small events in our lives.

We have talked many times about how blessed we are. Having husbands that love us and who would do anything for us, children who make us proud. The joys of being a parent, grandparent and great grandparent.

You have been a strong, loving and guiding force in their lives. Always there for them.

Your job is done. May you "rest in peace".
