Thank you. Mom definitely enjoyed your dad's friendship. I always enjoyed talking to him when he answered the phone when I would call the cleaners to talk to mom.

“ I want to share a story about Peg. In the late 1960's or early 1970's Peg found out that her sister-in-law had a potentially fatal illness that would require a lengthy hospitalization, without any reservations Peg and her beloved Jerry took in her sister-in-law's children. Peg and Jerry had children of their own at the time, but it didn't matter to her that is what you do for family. We were one big family going to ball games, and to the park. Peg comforted Dee Dee's children as they were unaware how sick their mother was. Dee Dee recovered and her children went back home. Peg always kept in interest in what her niece and nephew were doing, in academics, sports, or career choices. Peg was the ultimate matriarch. Family first. Now you are in the hands of your heavenly father, and reunited with your beloved Jerry and son Robert. May you rest in peace. I love you Aunt Peg.
