“ Dearest Marge was my Godmother. She was my Mother, Jean Swetkowski O'Connor's cousin and maid of honor in her wedding. I always told Mom that she picked the best Godmother. Her pies, and never forgetting my birthday- usually with a seashell themed beautiful gift-all of us loved the seashore! But most of all, I will never forget Marge sitting with me in the hospital when my Mom was seriously ill. And the day she passed, I cherished her (and her classmate- Alice O'Connor) being there with me. Thank you Marge. You lived a wonderful life - the Lord and many others are welcoming you with open arms in Paradise. I will never forget you and was blessed to have you in my life. Your beautiful family, Cindy, Eleanor, and the sons and daughters, husbands, wives, grandchildren, along with Lynne and Marilyn are in Bob's and my prayers. With much love, Jeanine.

Margaret and I have been friends for 85 years. She was the kindest, most loving friend to have. I have so many wonderful memories of all the good times we had. She would do anything for you. There are too many memories to say. Our families also had many good times. My prayers go to all her family from all of my family. She will be in my prayers forever. I miss you Margaret and I love you.
