

Marion Ella Rietheimer

April 3, 1939 - March 28, 2019

Marion Ella (Brower) Rietheimer, age 79 of Limerick, died on Thursday, March 28th, 2019. She was born in Norristown on April 3, 1939 daughter of the late Harry and Marion (Kulp) Brower. She was the beloved wife of the late George Rietheimer.

Marion was raised in Phoenixville, where she attended Springford High School. She was employed by Deltra Flag in Oaks for 25 years and later Kmart in Eagleville for over 30 years. Marion enjoyed games of chance such as playing the lottery, card games and casino trips. She was an enthusiast of the Philadelphia sports teams and loved attending her nephew's baseball games more than anything.

She is survived by her sister, Harriet Blake (Fran) of Conshohocken; many nieces and nephews especially Melissa and Kenneth Shreves, whom she lived with. She was predeceased by her 4 sisters: Etta Shelly, Judy Evans, Shirley Grohosky and Susan Shreves.

Relatives and friends may pay respects on Sunday, April 7th from 12noon-1:30pm at the William A. Moore Funeral Home, 708 Fayette St.,

Conshohocken. A service will commence in the funeral home at 1:30pm.
Internment is private.
