“ ETERNAL BRUSHSTROKES

*Mother, grandmother, friend.
A patchwork, a mosaic, a puzzle.
Strong, independent, hardworking, determined, fierce.
Yet...
Loving, kind, gentle, prayerful.
Quick to fall to her knees and bow her head. Humble
Joyful, fun-loving, quick to dance,
Lover of life.
Yet...
Quiet, reflective, ready to offer advice or encouragement.
Our Mom. Our Grandmother.
Our Precious Friend.
Gone to her heavenly home.
Yet...
Still remaining in our memories, our thoughts, our prayers.
In the flash of green eyes or the willful determination and courageous spirits of those she leaves behind.
Her legacy,
Her lifelong work of art.
We will continue the brushstrokes,
as she looks down from her vantage point and strive to make her proud.*

“ Our beloved Marge. I was so happy to spend quality time with her at Sheila's home. We made each other laugh. I would say to her in the morning "Good morning Marge ur look beautiful today, and she would respond yeah sure" 2 of my fond memories were eating dinner with her at the table, and feeding her snacks during the day. May she RIP and hope she is in a good place. To the family members, I send my condolences, and glad I was able to meet a lot of family members.
