

Mary J. Costigan

March 22, 1927 - July 14, 2016

Mary J. Costigan, 89, died on July 14, 2016, in Norristown PA. She was born in Londonderry, Northern Ireland, on March 22, 1927. Her family immigrated to Philadelphia where she lived in both Germantown and the Lawndale section of the city. Mary lived the last 25 years of her life in Conshohocken where she was a member of St. Matthew's Parish. She worked in child care and was also the counter lady at Adams Lanes in Northeast Philadelphia. She was the widow of Harry Costigan, and was the beloved grandmother of numerous grandchildren. There will be a Mass of Christian Burial celebrated at St. Matthew's Church RC Church, 3rd Ave. & Fayette St., Conshohocken, at 10:30AM on Saturday, July 23, 2016. Professional arrangements are by the William A. Moore Funeral Home, 708 Fayette St., Conshohocken.

Tribute Wall

EL

“ I,ve got to know Mary since I started caring for her. A very loved ,no nonsense woman, and very sweet. She is a very caring person learning from her family members who loves children, and love to sing. I know she will be missed. May her soul rest in peace.

Elaine

Elaine - July 23, 2016 at 08:26 AM

SM

I am sorry to hear of her passing. She was my father's sister. Born Mary Josephine Reid. She was such a wonderful aunt. I have many memories.

sheila m mirto - February 22, 2017 at 04:47 PM

EO

I first met Mary when I got a job at Adams Lanes back in the mid 80s. She was indeed a no nonsense woman but worked hard.

Eric Olsen - January 18, 2025 at 07:45 AM