“ My Aunt Cathy was one of the kindest and most caring people I've ever known. She always lived life with love and laughter and never had a bad thing to say about anyone. She was truly a remarkable woman and will be sorely missed. We love you Aunt Cathy ❤️!

“ Mom loved the Phillies, she could talk about them all day. I loved the times we would talk about whether they'd have a good season or not. Watching their Worlds Series victory was one of the best times we had watching sports.
