“ Aunt Bets is the kindest & gentlest woman. Truly an example of how people should treat others. She will be sorely missed but her memory will live on, in all of our hearts.

“ My Nanny was someone who I thought would live forever. And while her physical body is gone, I know she is still here in spirit. She was loved by everyone. While I am still in shock and am heartbroken knowing that she is gone, I am relieved to know that she is up there looking over us and is not in pain anymore. I was blessed to be able to have her for 22 years, and am thankful for all of the memories we shared together. She truly was one of the greatest, nicest and generous people I have ever known. She never wanted to be a burden to anyone, even while she was silently hurting. I know that her sudden death is a shock to all of us, but I keep reminding myself that she wouldn't have wanted it any other way. She was the epitome of an angel on earth and now she gets to be an angel up in heaven, and while I would kill to hear her say "hiya Bupps" one more time, I know that I'll hear it again someday.

“ I remember Betsy as a sweet person when ever we met at family functions. I could see how much pain she was in but she would always say she was okay. I loved that she never forgot my grandchildren and always asked how they where. She will be missed at the Joe Seaners family gatherings May she rest now with the Lord and have no pain 💜💜💜
