“ Met Pat when I was 14,My hubby knew him at 10.
We are 77 now.We were with him and Barb from the start.
Formed a life long friendship.Stood for each other's sons.Both families very close,
Together for just about ev erything.He was Uncle Pat to my children,and Barbara,was Aunt Barb.And it is the same with his children.
Have so many good,fun memories.
A man that didn't dwell on himself.But very concerned how you were.
Our families shared a life time.Every special event,sorrow etc
Now there is a big hole there,missing him.(And Barb)

Pat had Lori these past few years .Making his life meaningful and happy.
Even though it was a short time,they had each other for the time allotted him

“ Met Pat in the early 70's when his sister Fran and husband Larry were moving and he and Harry came to Lititz to help. They were both tall and strong and could pick up the frig and other pieces of furniture like it was nothing and always had a smile on his face. His hugs were sincere when I would see him. He is now enjoying his new life with the family who have gone before him. Eternal rest .. Sincerely Martha Barber
