“ Rod was like a second father to me. I've been his daughter Joanie's best friend for over 20 years. Rod treated me, and loved me like one of his own. He may have been quiet, but when he talked, you wanted to listen. Everyone wanted to listen. He was such a family oriented man, and the job he took most seriously was father, and husband. I may not have been biological, but his love and affection for me was abundant, as it was for all of his family. There are no words adequate to fully explain the monument of this loss, or what Rod meant to us all. I will simply end by saying thank you for loving me like I was your own child, and please continue to watch over us all. ❤️

“ So many happy memories but most recently we both shared a love for good seafood. After we ate a fantastic meal, it was time for dessert. We both ordered espresso with ice cream. The espresso is poured on the ice cream and I got to watch Rods face light up. Afterwards we both sat in the back seat of Joanie’s car giggling because we had an extreme caffeine high.

“ *My Dad is in Heaven
They say there is a reason
They say time will heal;
Neither time nor reason will change the way I feel.
Gone are the days we used to share.
But in my heart you will always be there.
The gates of memories will never close;
I miss you more than anybody knows...
I love and miss you everyday.*

My Dad was the best father that anyone could ever ask for or dream of. Truly the best.

“ This is one loss I will never get over. Such a great man no one could ever come close to him as a father and husband. He was the best. We never had a need for love or attention he was always giving us all he had. He was the best dad anyone could ask for. I'm sure he will be protecting us even now through our time of losing him. I love you. You will be greatly missed.

“ I remember spending time with Rodney and his sister Sharon when we were young. Being close in age as second cousins we enjoyed each other's company. We would walk to Plymouth Valley Mall and to Sears. I regret that we grew apart in our later teen years and beyond. Thoughts of those earlier times will never be forgotten and he will forever be in my heart ❤️
