“ I was so saddened to hear about Ronnie. I had the pleasure of meeting him over 12 years ago and watched him grow into lovely young man. I will never forget his warm smile, sweet demeanor and love for fuzzy creatures. He always stopped to say hello to me and to give my dog, Bear, a scratch behind the ear whenever we would run into each other while out on our walks. His bright smile was infectious and he will surely be missed. For Ronnie's family, my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I remember when we would go over to your house when you were still in diapers to watch wrestling. We had so much fun. You were such a happy baby and child. I also loved when I would hide out at the house in Bridgeport me and Marie would watch you and Sal you would love to run around like crazy and show off. I miss you so much love you always

“ Such a sweet young man. Ronnie would have given you the shirt off his back he had such a bright beautiful smile. My heart is sore thinking of this beautiful young man taken so soon. Ronnie you will be sadly missed but you were too good for this world. We have lost a sweet soul but heaven has gained another angel. Sleep tight sweet boy. Karen & Rod my heart is broken for you to lose a child has to be the most heart breaking thing to happen to any parent. My prayers and thoughts are with you and the family.
God bless and may he hold you in his arms to get thru this.
