

Scott Allen Hartman

December 24, 1959 - February 27, 2018

Scott Allen Hartman, age 58 of Norristown, a chef, died on Tuesday, February 27, 2018. He was born in Norristown on December 24, 1959 son of the late John J. Jr. and Nancy (Beswick) Hartman.

Scott was born in Norristown until moving to Hatfield at age 10, where he attended Souderton High School. He was employed as a chef at a variety of establishments including Brenvale Diner in Norristown, 401 Diner in Conshohocken and Pudge's in Conshohocken. In his spare time, he enjoyed collecting and working on antique radios; a skill passed on to him by his grandfather. He will be sorely missed by friends and family alike.

He is survived by: his sister, Cristine Martin of Spokane, Washington; a niece, Sarah; a nephew, Daniel and many cousins. He was predeceased by his sister Michele Ann Hartman and his brother, John J. III.

Interment will be held privately at the convenience of the family. Professional arrangements are by the William A. Moore Funeral Home, 708 Fayette St., Conshohocken.

Tribute Wall

“ I worked with Scott for many years at Vee's on main st in Norristown. He was a great guy, always remembered everything and was the best short order cook I ever worked with. This is sad news and I will miss him

Vance Jaffe - March 26, 2018 at 08:24 AM

“ I enjoyed talking to Scott and listening to the oldies station when we work together at Pudges. He was a walking encyclopedia about all music from that era. Scott and I had a lot of busy nights in that kitchen just the two of us and he always did an excellent job. He will be missed

Mark Baker

Mark Baker - March 22, 2018 at 09:17 AM

“ Scott and I sitting down having lunch at Lou's steak shop in Norristown he'd like zeps so that's what we had rest in peace Scott I will miss you

George Brown - March 21, 2018 at 05:56 PM

You are missed Scott RIP my friend!

Ralph Fehr - March 21, 2018 at 06:31 PM

rip dear friend.

marlene silva - March 21, 2018 at 06:41 PM