“ Learning of the passing of Susan has touched me deeply. She was a dear childhood friend... a best friend for many years. We spent our Friday nights playing school with Lisa and Doris as the students (feeling bad for them now 😊). Mrs. D'Annunzio made the best tuna and egg sandwiches... I make them to this day. Susan and I went to different high schools and grew apart as a result. Fortunately, we were able to reach out and connect several years ago when FB first made its debut. 😍 I think of my childhood often, and Susan is always a part of my thoughts. I am saddened by her passing and send my condolences to her family. Prayers... 🙏

“ I worked with Susan for years and have very fond memories of our time sharing an office. She was such a kind soul. We shared many laughs over the years. And her passion for animals was contagious
