“ He was my Poppy! (grandpop) I loved him very much and was very sad to see him pass. I just found this page so I thought I would write a few words. To Poppy, I love you so much and miss you every day. I miss making funny jokes with you and laughing at the goofy names we call each other. I miss playing cards with you and looking back at old home videos with you in them. I try to hold back the tears but every now and then I find a picture of you or have a flash back and I can't hold in my tears. You were such a good grandpop rest in peace. Miss you - Darby
