

William J. "Billy" Hayes

February 7, 1938 - November 30, 2017

William J. "Billy" Hayes, age 79 of Conshohocken, a retired millwright and maintenance supervisor, died on Thursday evening November 30th, 2017. He was born in Conshohocken on February 7, 1938 son of the late James and Jean (Suvitsky) Hayes. He was the beloved husband of the late Nancy (Brooks) Hayes.

Billy was born, raised and resided his whole life in Conshohocken. He attended Conshohocken High School and graduated from Plymouth Whitemarsh High School. After high school, Bill went onto serve his country honorably by enlisting in the United States Army and serving in South Korea. He was employed as a millwright by Alan Wood Steel Co. and Lukens Steel Co. Later on in his career; he was the maintenance supervisor for Camden Iron & Metal. Having an "old school" work ethic and always wanting to provide the best for his family; Bill's idea of full time was not 40 hours, but rather 70 to 80 hours a week. He was a craftsman of many talents whose hobbies include: woodworking; metal working; mechanics and machinery, especially cars and motorcycles; and countless other interests that engaged the mind and hands. He was a member of Conshohocken AMBUCS, Gladwynne Vets Post 6956, Spring Mill Fire Co., Swedeland Fire Co. and the CBC. At the end of the day, he cherished being a husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather to his beloved family.

He is survived by: 2 sons, Chris (Carol) of Audubon and William J. (Lyndsay) of Raleigh, NC; 2 daughters, Terri Zallie (Tom) of Skippack and Bernadette Vereb (Michael) of Jeffersonville; a sister, Kathleen Eskie of Fairview Village; 8 grandchildren (Christopher, Justin, Ethan, Jason, Emily, Kaitlyn, Michael and Shane); 6 great-grandchildren (Evelyn, Sophie, Charlie, Skyler, Alexis and Cristian); many nieces and nephews; and his beloved dog, "Hey Girl". He was predeceased by his brother, James Hayes.
